

27 sizzling spots for bacon lovers

by Ashley Day, USA TODAY | Published on August 19, 2015

It's a big month for bacon with National Bacon Lover's Day (August 20) and International Bacon Day (August 31) offering two good excuses to indulge in the sizzling good stuff. The popular pork takes on all kinds of forms across the country from a wrap for even more food to a snack on a stick. Familiarize yourself with the variety of flavorings over a tasting flight or see how the ingredient's implemented in tons of dishes at a festival in these delicious destination for bacon lovers. It's even infused in beverages, jams, burger patties and desserts these days. Browse the gallery above for bacon inspiration across the nation, and let the cravings commence.

In Asbury Park, N.J., Asbury Festhalle & Biergarten serves the Angels on Horseback dish featuring bacon wrapped oysters on toast. Asbury Festhalle & Biergarten

